

Seven Workbench

Power to your people.

How do you make the workday more work friendly? Seven Workbench. Whether you're heads-down for a last-minute deadline or powering through a regular day at the office, this benching set-up allows you to work how you want with standup, sit-down capabilities and integrated privacy screens for as much or as little collaboration as you like.

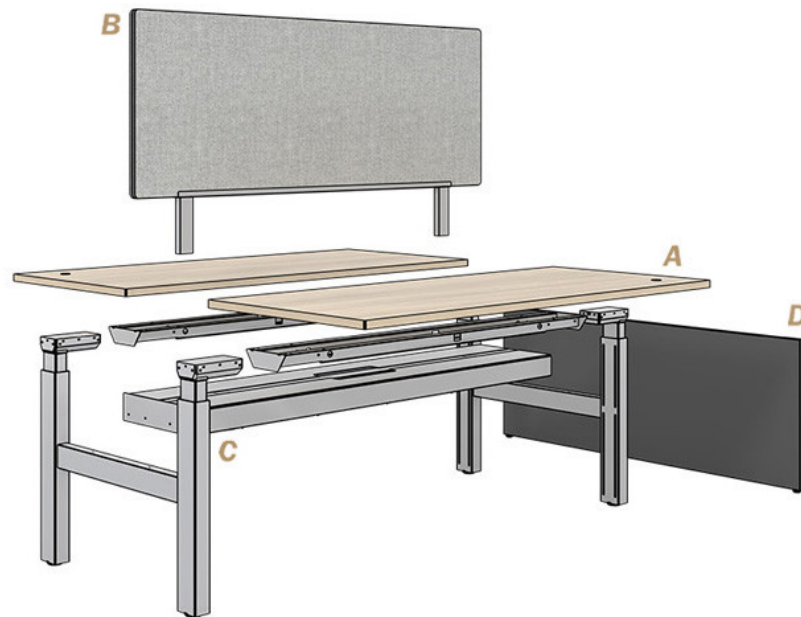

Details

With dual-sided and single-sided options, a variety of end-of run gallery panels, a robust cable management system, and the fact that it's fully height-adjustable, the options are endless. Factor in the power and data raceway with either 4 or 8 outlets per user and you've got a system designed for getting things done.
